The Partners:

The National Association of County Engineers (NACE) was founded in July 1956. Membership is open to county engineers and county road professionals in engineering or management capacities serving in counties of the United States and Canada. NACE has four prime objectives: to advance county engineering and management by providing a forum for exchange of ideas and information aimed at improving service to the public; to foster and stimulate the growth of individual state organizations of county engineers and county road officials; to improve relations and the spirit of cooperation among county engineers and other agencies; and to monitor national legislation affecting county transportation & public works departments and through NACO, provide NACE's legislative opinions.

The National Local Technical Assistance Program Association (NLTAPA) is a not-for-profit organization representing and serving 58 LTAP and TTAP (tribal) Centers in the United States and Puerto Rico. The LTAP/TTAP Centers comprise an established network of transportation centers throughout the country with a mission of identifying and disseminating the latest in technology and training to local transportation policy makers or transportation professionals in the field. Primary areas of LTAP/TTAP service delivery are roadway safety, infrastructure management and maintenance, worker safety, and organizational excellence. The main objectives of NLTAPA, in representing the LTAP/TTAP Centers, are to build awareness about LTAP/TTAP in the transportation community, assist FHWA with developing priorities for the LTAP/TTAP Program, and build the capacity of each Center to best meet the needs of its customers.
